gear n' pen

The title 'gear n' pen' is rendered in a bold, stylized font. The word 'gear' is replaced by a detailed gear icon. The letter 'n' is cleverly designed to incorporate a fountain pen, with the pen's body forming the vertical stroke and its nib pointing upwards.

ADVISERS

ALEXANDER B. LEWIS

We deeply appreciate his patience and kindness toward us throughout the years we worked together. Mr. Lewis has been more than an adviser to us; he has been a friend in need.

GRACE E. PALMER

She worked with us without tiring and helped us out of all our embarrassments and difficulties. She is a grand adviser and especially good on finances.

Dedication

We dedicate this our year-book to all American boys and girls who in all times of stress and danger have answered their country's call for service. Especially do we hold in remembrance the valiant youth who most recently have served in Korea—Truly it may be said of them also, "The glory of the present is to make the future free."

To the Class of January 1951 best wishes. May you find in the life you are about to enter abundant opportunities for joy, happiness, and service to your community.

A jovial gentleman nice to meet, his clever wit just can't be beat.

WILLIAM THOMPSON

He is not a chip off the old block, but the block itself.

MADELINE TESTA

Her voice ever soft, gentle and low, an excellent thing in a woman.

SARAH TURNER

Nothing is rarer than real goodness.

ANTHONY TORSIELLO

He's both friendly and intelligent, what more can one want.

ANN TRAPASSO

A good companion for anybody.

CLASS OF JANUARY '51

as sports.

SALLY WAX Gentle and tender are her ways.

EDWARD WIEGAND
Dreaming is not an act of pure imagination.

PAUL WINGLER
He fools around, and he's fun but you'll always find his work done.

HAROLD WOODWARD

He's a very good friend that we've all got, and when he goes we'll miss him a lot.

MARIE ZARRA

A charming girl with a modest air.

One who never turned his back but marched breast forward.

RICHARD O'ROURKE
They looked at him and the wonder grew, that one small head could hold all he knew.

VINCENT POLISEO
Politeness costs nothing and gains everything.

CLASS OF JANUARY '51

The Last Will and Testament

This is it, so being of sound mind and hollow body, We, the Class of January 1951, hereby proclaim this to be our Last Will and Testament. Anything said in the following is purely coincidental and should be blamed on the printer. Teachers can go on with the reading of this document under their own risk;

1. First of all, to our successors, we leave our worn books, our wornout term requirements, our worn out teachers (and I mean Worn), our newly painted building, our wonderful cafeteria, and also we leave you all our worn out excuses and alibis.
2. To our adviser Miss Palmer, we leave a big photograph of herself to hang in the Auditorium and a line of soldiers to obey her command of "ATTENTION".
3. Mr. Lewis, Ah! yeah. All written excuses will be left to this man. We leave also a new batch of young vigorous people who will fight for their rights.
4. To Mr. Ralston, we leave, (in a low pitched voice) that everlasting phrase, "We will now pass to our classes".
5. We mustn't forget the office staff. So we will just leave them in peace. Miss Gordon has our blessings for a more mannerly bunch of boys who collect the books from the book room.
6. To the English Department we leave several unmentionable things. However, there are some things which can be written, for instance, dead memory sheets, dead book reports, and dead MacBeth.
7. To our wonderful old History Department we leave a whole new book of some of the "History" that our class has made during the last term of our High School career.
8. Sis boom Bah, sis boom bah, all of these enchanting notes are left to our music masterminds otherwise called the Music Department.
9. The Technical Department has been a great help in preparing our boys for the world of industry. Now they are ready to face and dig the largest ditch ever seen.
10. Gym, is here to stay, so let's make the best of it. But, PLEASE give the girls more time to dress and let the boys wash after the period is over.
11. Ha Ha, the commercialists thought they were going to get away without being seen, but we fooled you. After all you did for us with those bookkeeping papers and filing papers, and those old broken down machines, you cold hearted fellows and gals could never escape this little means of torture.
12. Whenever you smell a smell that stinks you will always be reminded of the Science Department.
13. Those mathematicians who go around yelling numbers and theorems are going to be picked up by the men in White Coats pretty soon.
14. Spain and Italy are beautiful countries with beautiful languages. Let's hope neither of those countries ever hear our students murder their languages.
15. Art!, Art!, what is life without Art? We don't know, give us time to find out, will ya?
16. To the Freshman we leave a lot of good advice. Do not study too hard, for it will make you sick, and no employer wants to hire a sick employee. If you obtain good grades without study, then laugh heartily at all your teachers' jokes even though you are hearing them for the 1,000,000,000,000th time. Ask your teachers questions about the lesson after class, and give them an apple a day. Send them cards on all the holidays and carry lots of books.

All the rest of our property, whatsoever and wheresoever, and of what nature, kind and quality, after the payment of all our debts and funeral expenses, we leave to you.

In testimony whereof, we hereunto set our hand and seal, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, this 24th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one.

Class Song JANUARY '51

Words by CATHERINE RUSSO
Music by E. RICCARDI

ANDANTE

A hand-drawn musical score for a class song. The score is written on ten staves, each with a treble and bass clef. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The tempo is marked 'ANDANTE'. The lyrics are written below the notes. The background features a large, stylized heart shape.

FAREWELL TO THEE, FOUR YEARS HAVE PASSED; SOME LEAVES HAVE FALL-EN
THROUGH THE YEARS. OUR CLASS HAS SHARED BOTH TEARS AND JOY, TO--GETH--ER STROVE TO REACH OUR GOAL.
THE TIME HAS COME-- FOR US TO PART: WE HEAR THE CALL TO STRIVE AND SERVE; CEN-TRAL
WE LEAVE WITH SAD RE-GRET, AND FOND, SWEET MEM'RIES IN OUR HEARTS.

ALMA MATER

Words by: ELMER TREISS

Music by: LASLETT SMITH

MODERATO

The musical score is presented in five systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The background is a detailed illustration of a city street scene, featuring a large, ornate building with a clock tower on the left, a street with vintage cars, and trees. The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words in all caps and others in title case. The tempo is marked 'MODERATO'.

HIGH A-BOVE THE BU-SY CI-TY,
FAR BEYOND ALL TOUCH OF ILL, SITS EN-THRONED OUR ALMA MA-TER
OUR DEAR LADY IS ON THE HILL. LET THE CHO-RUS, SEND IT SWELL-ING, WITH A LEAL AND LOY-AL WILL, AND OUR BOUN-TY BE THE BEAU-TY OF OUR LADY — ON THE HILL.

SPORTS

LOU MONTEMARANO

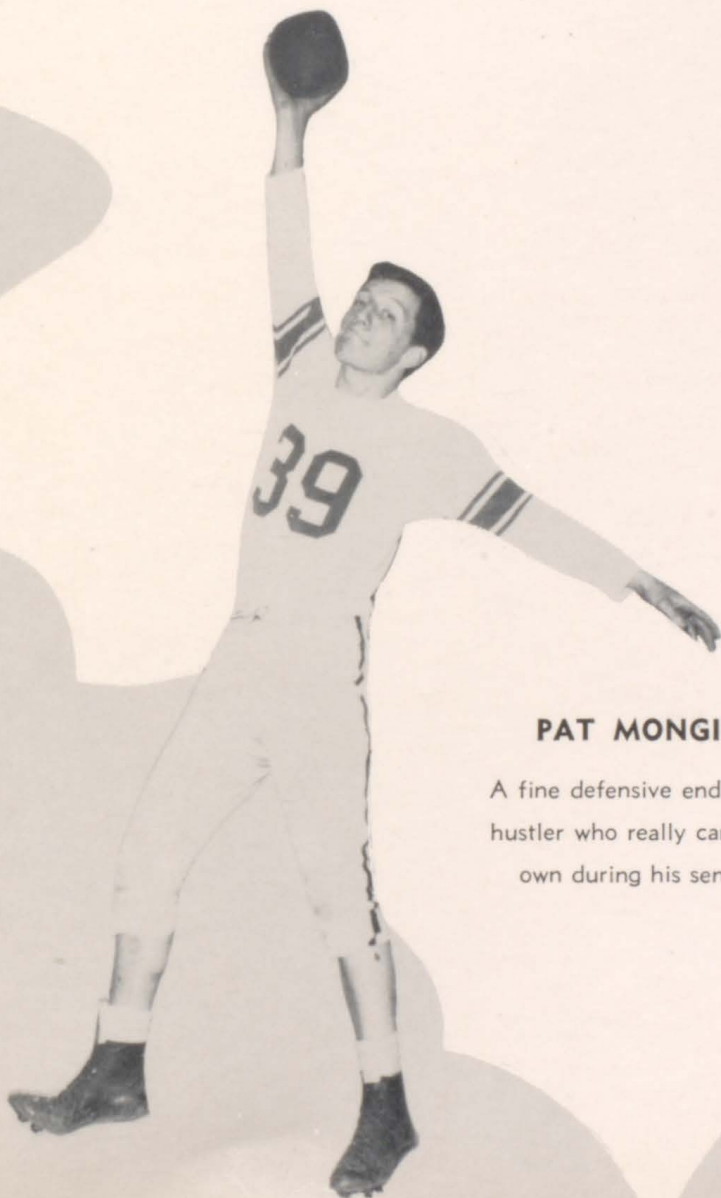

All-City tackle and one of the line stalwarts in his senior year. A real "holler" guy and team man in all incidents.

VIN LIPOMA

First-string end for two seasons and an excellent down-field blocker, who despite his slight stature proved to be a valuable asset to the squad.

JERRY FAZZINI

A sparkling example of the sporting proverb: its the size of the fight in the man that counts not the size of the man in the fight.

PAT MONGIELLO

A fine defensive end and a real hustler who really came into his own during his senior year.

Rah! Rah!

All eyes are trained on the field as the team and several members of the faculty watch the proceedings.

Costy (63) makes a futile attempt to complete a last down pass to Jacobs (77) in the West Side game.

Central end Ed McLucas (30) makes a futile dive for Don Reith's (17) pass.

Central end Ed McLucas leaps high into the air to snag Larry Guarino's pass for a 10 yard gain against Weequahic.

Central's band and twirling squad march on the field.

Don Reith (17), Central quarterback sweeps his own right end for a seven yard gain against Barringer.

TEAM!

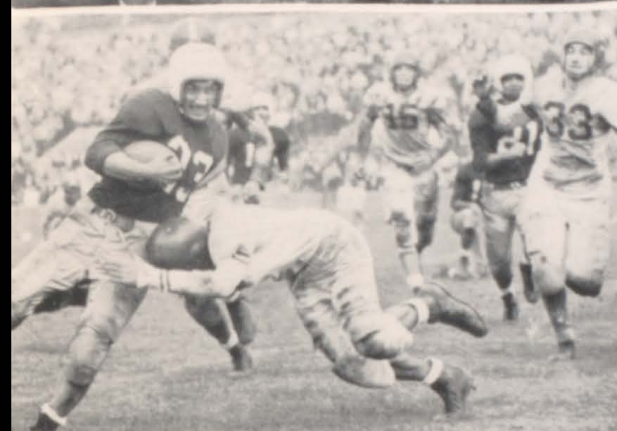

Head coach Sal Commisa watches the proceedings as Ruggiero (19) Scurko (35) and Lipoma (25) look on.

Bloomfield's Bob Pascal loses his head about Central's Art Hooper (22).

Barringer's Al Grieco (9) starts to falter as Scurko (35) and Sica (15) move in for the tackle.

Jerry Vitello evades would-be Barringer tackler.

Barringer end Tony Battone (35) hauls in a short pass deep in Central territory.

Jerry Vitello (23), Central fullback, scoots right end for a first down.

Peterpaul's (57) pass falls amid a trio of Central backer-ups.

CROSS COUNTRY Team

BOB MILLER

A consistent runner as well as a worthy example of sportsmanship and fair play.

FRANK CASTELLUCCIO

One of the finest 220 yard dash men in the city during the 1950 track season and a "sure bet" when a winner is needed.

CROSS COUNTRY SQUAD

Under the watchful eye of Coach Irving Levin, the Central Cross Country team established itself as one of the finest in Essex County. In the state competition the team finished second which is something to be proud of in any quarter.

BASEBALL

Team

Linzo Jenkins, Central first sacker slides headlong back into first base as East Side pitcher Emil Karlik looks on.

Johnny Romano, Central third baseman jogs across first base as East Side first baseman Bill Valia waits patiently for the throw.

Once again, in the 1950 Baseball campaign, Coach Bob Reilly fielded a formidable team to help further the favorable name which Central ball clubs have earned for themselves in past encounters. Although faced with the problem of inexperience the squad came through like a real winner.

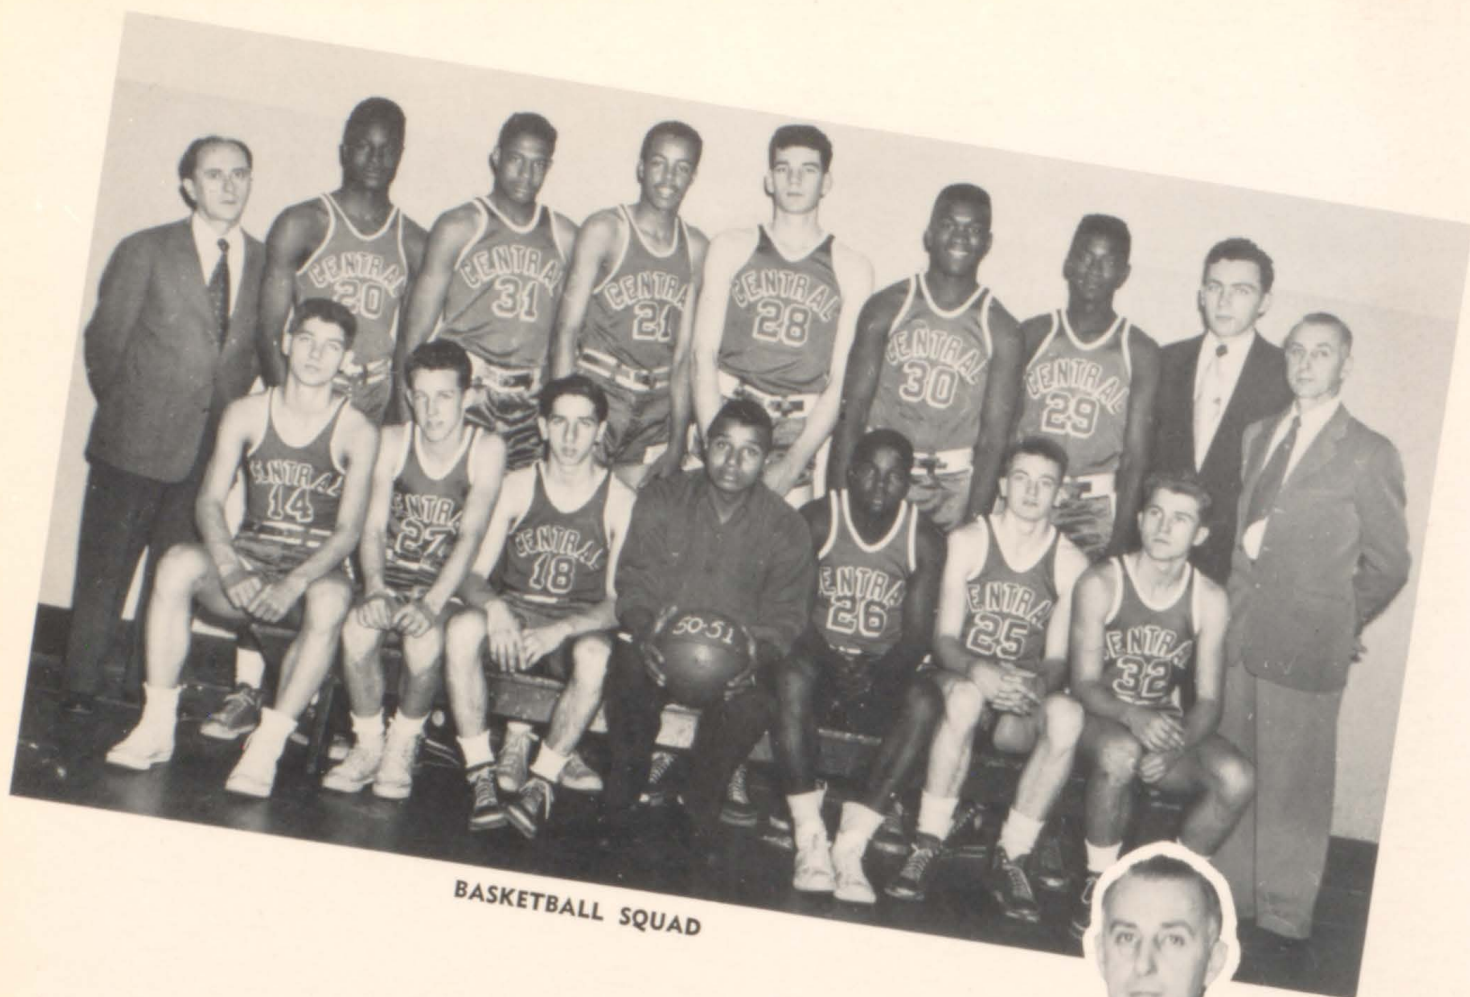

ROBERT REILLY
Coach

Central pitcher, Mike De-Rogatis goes down on one knee in an effort to pick off Tony Avino, East Side third baseman.

Central's Marv Tonsul beats out an infield hit as East Side's Bill Valia is pulled of the bag.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

Basketball

Supporters of the basketball squad are once again looking forward to the State Championship. One of the main reasons for this optimism is the return of Coach Henry Finck to Central after a two-year period of absence; together with Les Gardner and Co., Coach Finck should have smooth sailing this season.

Swimming

Once again, after a year of absence from the swimming scene, Central High will have a fine team to represent it during this 1950-51 swimming campaign.

ONE profession . . . and a MASTER at it

WHEN you choose the profession you're going to follow . . . choose carefully, slowly. When you've decided, select one phase of that profession . . . and then concentrate on it! SPECIALIZE, study and work at your specialty until you know more about it than anyone else in the world.

The creed of specialization and perfection applies universally; to the man who builds better mousetraps, to the surgeon, or the engineer . . . or the photographer.

Academy Yearbook Photographers are SPECIALISTS in that precise sense. We are YEARBOOK Photographers, interested only in creating ever-finer YEARBOOK pictures.
